APPENDIX

The following are the names and records of Clergymen whose addresses the Editor has been unable to obtain, and with whom, therefore, he could not communicate. Every effort has been made to trace their present whereabouts, but without success.

Owing to the pressure of space it has been found necessary to delete all Clergy whose names have appeared in this section of several issues of Crockford.

INDEX OF PARISHES—ENGLISH

D indicates Diocese and Rural Deanery number P indicates Patron
I indicates Incumbent (and Assistant Curate[s])

SPECIAL NOTES

Under Section 86 of the Pastoral Measure 1968 all Districts (other than Conventional Districts) became Parishes and under Section 87 all Perpetual Curates became Vicars.

In the following Index, as in the Biographies of the Clergymen concerned, the style 'Curate-in-charge' is invariably used for those who are temporarily placed in charge of a Parish to perform the duties of the Incumbent.

The first Parish to appear under the name of a place containing more than one Parish is indicated, in a Clergyman's Biography, by the place name alone. Subsequent parishes are referred to both by the Dedication of the Parish Church and the place name.

The English Hymnal

Musical Editor: Dr. Ralph Vaughan Williams

'I have used the English Hymnal for more than 30 years and have found that it meets almost all the needs of choirs and congregations in Cathedrals, Parish Churches and schools. The book makes generous provision for all seasons of the Church's year and for special occasions. There are relatively few omissions. The distinguished musical editorship of Ralph Vaughan Williams has led to the inclusion in the book of a number of his own fine tunes including Down Ampney and Sine Nomine, and the harmonizations and arrangements of the tunes are invariably in good taste. Now nearly 80 years old, the book has stood the test of time and is likely to be of service to the Church for many years to come.' Sir David Willcocks.

For details of the Full Music, Melody, and various Words editions, and of the grants available for introductions, please write to the English Hymnal Grants Department, Oxford University Press, Walton Street, Oxford OX2 6DP.

The English Hymnal Service Book

The English Hymnal Service Book was produced in 1962 to help churches where congregational singing and participation in the liturgy are especially fostered. It contains over 290 widely used hymns drawn from the English Hymnal (with the E.H. Number also given) and a supplement of further hymns and carols, 37 in number, together with the Canticles and Psalter simply pointed, the Versicles and Responses at Mattins and Evensong set for familiar chants, Marbeeke's setting of the Holy Communion and the words of those parts of the Offices and Communion Service which are said by all.
A separate Full Music edition provides for the needs of choir and clergy. Grants are available for its Introduction as in the case of the English Hymnal.

English Praise

A Supplement to The English Hymnal

This collection of just over a hundred items includes some comparatively recent hymns, some which have already proved their worth elsewhere, a number of new works, written for English Praise, carols for various seasons, and a small section of responsorial psalms. The tunes are at a pitch to suit unison congregational singing. The arrangement follows the pattern of English Hymnal, but concludes with three more general sections: Praise and Thanksgiving, Christian Unity, and Social Justice. Generous grant terms will be available to schools and churches on introductory orders.

World Christian Encyclopedia

A Comparative Survey of Churches and Religions in the Modern World, AD 1900–2000

Edited by David B. Barrett

This major new reference work is the first survey ever to deal comprehensively with the subject of contemporary Christianity in all its many versions across the modern world, set against both secular and religious backgrounds. It describes systematically the present extent, status, and characteristics of the Christian religion, and covers all the main ecclesiastical traditions and the manifold activities of organized Christianity throughout the world. It gives detailed information on all the various denominations, as well as dioceses, jurisdictions, missions, assemblies, and fellowships. The material is given in an inter-denominational or ecumenical presentation, set in the context of all other faiths and beliefs, including the so-called 'New Religions', as well as atheism, agnosticism, and the secular quasi-religions. 1024 pp, 1500 illustrations, 34 colour maps £65

Christians in Ulster 1968–1980

Eric Gallagher and Stanley Worrall

This book describes and assesses the part played by the Churches in Northern Ireland's recent troubles. After a brief historical introduction it gives a chronological narrative of the events of the last twelve years. There are also chapters devoted to special subjects such as education, the peace movement, and ecumenism. The book ends with a chapter assessing the story and prospects for the future. £10

The Holy Land

An Archaeological Guide from Earliest Times to 1700

Jerome Murphy-O'Connor, OP

'The book will prove to be an indispensable companion for all future visitors to the Holy Land. It provides a brief but excellent guide to almost all the archaeological sites of that country that the visitor is likely to be able to see.' Church Times. Illustrated £8.50
Oxford Paperbacks £3.95

The Oxford Dictionary of Saints

D. H. Farmer

'The author of this deceptively slim work manages to achieve the almost impossible. He has tackled the subject with objectivity and thoroughness. . . . He breathes life into his scholarship and has produced a dictionary which makes compulsive reading.' The Tablet. £8.50
